

Upsilon Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma Book Sale Grant Application

To All Grant Applicants:

Please provide for consideration the information requested and submit the application electronically or mail the written form postmarked by March 6, 2020.

Those who have applied or received funds in the past must complete this year's grant application if they wish to be considered.

All organizations, agencies or individuals receiving funding from a book sale grant must expend grant monies to benefit Laramie County ONLY. We do not fund churches. Our funds must be used for educational purposes and/or programming. We do not make capital investments.

Organizations, agencies or individuals receiving grant monies from Upsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma of Cheyenne must enter into a signed agreement that requires a concise written report confirming completion of the project and a full accounting of expenditures. This report should be received by Upsilon Chapter no later than one year from the issue of funds. All monies granted must be spent to benefit the specific project or program presented to the chapter. Any unused monies shall be returned to the book sale grant committee for further consideration.

Funds will be distributed after committee recommendations are approved by the general membership of Upsilon Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma of Cheyenne. Monies will be awarded April 20, 2020.

If you have questions, please contact me at 307-631-6039 or leiljames@gmail.com.

Thank you for your interest.

Camellia El-Antably, Grant Committee Chairperson
