Fill out and turn in a DKG Prospect Card on that special educator, and let's invite her to join Upsilon Chapter!

Used Book Sale Information: IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR CHAPTER MEMBERS WORKING the SALE

-Julia Burke, Liaison for Scouts and Scouters, Base Personnel and Fleet Reserve-Branch 59

Due to visibility being a challenge this year with workers being in different rooms, I offer this information to help members understand more about what the NON-MEMBER

HELPERS (Boy Scouts, Adult Scouters, and Base personnel) can do to help them during our Used Book Sale.

The NON-MEMBER HELPERS at the book sale

have been directed to assist the DKG members as needed. Remembering that many of these non-member helpers have not assisted with the book sale before, you need to explain the "how" of the job needing done. Please request their assistance for specific jobs you need assistance, including:

1. Carrying filled and bulky or heavy flats or boxes to the book drop

- Be sure the buyers print their names on the sticky tab and explain to the buyer that the tab must be given to the helpers at the book drop area.

2. Offering the buyer another flat to continue looking.

Explain to the NON-MEMBER HELPERS:

- 1) Where extra flats are located,
- 2) How to offer them to the buyers, and
- 3) Where to get extra boxes from the storage area.

3. Moving books from the floor to table

- Explain that flats and boxes need to be placed in the correct box or area on the table.
- The older/bigger boys can move boxes up onto the table for you. DO NOT HURT YOURSELF by lifting boxes that are too heavy.

4. Running errands as requested by buyers, Adult Scouters and DKG members

Lionel Kelley (Troop Scoutmaster)

has given them general directions. Adult Scouters will be at the book check and supervising the boys. There should be no horsing around. Remember the boy scouts are not adults and may need a gentle reminder to get back to work. Chuck Burke helps Lionel so you can call on either Lionel or Chuck if you need help concerning the scouts.

MSgt. Sarah Withrow is in the process of having those from the base sign up. There will be help for us from 7:30 A.M. until closing both sale days with some assistance for clean up on Sunday. Please ask them to see me or sign-in on a form located at the book drop area so that they get credit for helping us and we can thank them personally after the sale. There will be A.M. and P.M. shifts each day with a change of some helpers. They will help with many things including parking, carrying heavy loads to buyers' cars, and as you request their assistance. They prefer to be busy so feel free to ask for their help.

If you have any questions now or during the Used Book Sale on March 5th and 6th, call me on my cell phone at 421-3080.
